CORRIGAN'S CLASS IS OF HIGH ORDER

Sain's Son Defeats Nobleman, Varro and Lakeview Belle in Fair Grounds Handicap.

ALVA II A SMART JUMPER.

She Fences Fast and Cleverly and Shows Speed on the Flat -Turf News and Gossip.

Corrigan, a St. Louis and American Derby candidate, ran a good race when he won the handleap at a mile and seventy yards from Nobleman, Varro and Lakeview Belle at the Fair Grounds yesterday. He gave these good horses a lot of weight, ran the first mile on a cushioned track in 1:41 and won as he pleased. He worked to the mile and one-quarter in 2:07%. This is nice time, but he was weary when he pulled up.

The colt looked none too good. He is narrow of hip and chest and does not strike one as a weight carrier. Undeniably, however, he does possess class.

Lake view Belle set the pace in ripping fachion. Nobleman surprised all on-look-

Lake view Beile set the pace in ripping fashion. Nobleman surprised all on-lookers by running with her. Varro, the extraordinary 6 to 5 favorite, trailed the bunch. Ransch placed Corrigan nicely behind the pacemakers. Nobleman and Lakeview Beile fought it out to the last sixteenth. Here Corrigan came on without urging. Lakeview Beile stopped, Nobleman went on, but Corrigan was the best. Beile quit to nothing in the face of the class of Corrigan.

James Givens turned up what looks like a real good steeplechase horse in Aiva II. This son of Alva—Alfalfa won the two-mile steeplechase by an eighth of a mile from Eva Moe. Torreon and Terry Ranger. Ranger and Moe were giving him weight, but he more than equaled the concession by the beating he gave them. He jumped fast and sursily, even if he did hit his his banks, was quick to get going after landing, showed speed on the flat and acted like a horse that will carry weight.

The race was an excellent one. Torreon acted very rank and set a runaway pace. Choice was sent with him. The way they raced to the second fence was a caution. Choice hit it and stumbled. His rider, Butler, fell off. His was the only accident. Had Butler hung on he would have been a contender, as the horse did not lose any ground in the stumble.

Torreon set the pace for about a mile. Then Aiva II. came up. He hit the hurdle hard, and everyone said that he was tired and would fall. Not so. He flew all the other fences like a bird. At the stand Eva Moe, who had been under restraint, began her run, and the spectators thought that she would win, Alva II, kept going away, however, and won by a long distance. Eva Moe came fast in the stretch and outgame! Torbon set the pace for about a mile. Then Busy's Fair Grounds Entries.

If Mr. Dade can get the bad actor Biger off in the first race to-day he may win. Mr. Dade has been too patient so far with these bad actors. This one is the worst of them all and will probably be left. In this case Cora Havili II will win, especially if the track is muddy. Cora Havili is an enticing looking bet.

It seems to lie between Lou Hazel and Leviathan in the second race. This horse Erns has not been running his races right lately and may turn both over. This horse is in here at very nice weight. He has a race or two to his credit that can beat the 5-year-olds. Yet Leviathan is the best bet.

Start good. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Winner, J. N. Miller & Co.'s ch. g., 5. Alva-Alfalfa. Alva, a very fast, clever and accurate fencer, was under rearraint for first mile. When set down he ran away from the field. He acted like a good steeplechaser under light weight. Eva Moe found the weight troublesome. She is a better hurder than steeplechaser, and was well ridden. Ranger tired, but came again. Torreon was very rank and ran himself into exhaustion. Warplot broke down. Choice hit second fence and unscated his rider.

away seem to have the third race between them. Burnett's Walkaway has been im-proving and will go well to-day. It is a tight fit all round.

Branch is not much good but he should beat the lot he meets in the fifth race to-day. Frank McConnell or Fleetwing will be the contenders. Look out for Nan Dora in the mud.

She Ought to Land Club Members Handicap on Dry Track. If it is run on a dry track this afternoon the Club Members' Handicap does not look like a race. Lady Strathmore has it won now. This is the best mare in America, probably—in view of Scepter's defeat—the best in the world. Maybe Blue Girl can beat her, weight for age. No other mare or filly has a chance to-day.

If it is run in mud Lady Strahmore probably will win, but will find South Breeze hard to handle in that kind of going. Mr. Cahn's mare is good just now and will have Ransch up.

In mud Petit Maitre will be in the money. now. This is the best mare in America. cahn's mare is good just now and will have Ransch up.
In mud Petit Maitre will be in the money. On the dry or in mud, the filly Helen Print will bear watching if the ride on her is good. She is the dangerous horse.

Just why Terra Firma should be asked to give Lady Strathmore twenty pounds passeth ken. The Cahn colt seems to have been overrated, but they will have a hard time beating him out of second money. He should as certainly be second as Lady Strathmore should be first. His recent races will have helped him a lot and the distance will suit him better than anything in the race.

Found should stop at a trifle over the mile. Mr. Huffman has her fine and will make a bold bid for the stake.

Searcher is coming here from Chicago for the race. This is generally supposed to mean that he will win. Mr. Hildreth, who owns him, is reputed the shrewdest horseman in America. The races run by this horse at Memphis do not indicate that he can win. South Breeze holds him safe on that form. He may have improved. He is a fairish horse in the mud and on a slow track.

that form. He may have improved. He is a fairish horse in the mud and on a slow track.

Lady Strathmore is the best mare in America. The good 3-year-olds are giving her oodles of weight. Then how can a good 3-year-old, a good average coit and filly like Terra Firma and Helen Print give the best 4-year-old mare in the country weight and beat her?

Wax Taper may come up and run his race. But on his form, what can you do with him? Captain Rice was around yesterday fixing up a big jolification for his friends for Sunday afternoon. What does that mean? The Captain is naturally a hospitable man, and entertains lavishly. Or he is so sure of something dropping to-day that he has it all fixed for to-morrow? On his condition and on his recent races, Wax Taper cannot win.

The writer can see only one horse in it on a good track. That is Lady Strathmore and South Breeze, with a shade in favor of the Cahn mare. The others are behind the hill. To-day's Club Members' Handicap was established in 1892, when Mayor Rolla Wells was president of the Fair Association. The stake is the most valuable all-age fixture of the Fair Association. Mr. Stevier and Scrpire received a rare ovation.

Considering the very heavy state of the going the time compares taverably with the 2:42% made by Ard Patrick in winning the Derby Wednesday.

Sceptre's easy win beems thoroughly to justify the owner's high opinion of the inerits of that filly and the compasion that her true running form was not shown in the Derby, and that, as a matter of inct, the Derby was one of those unaccountable disappointments so frequent in turf history.

cliasppointments so frequent in turf history.

On being asked whether the challenge still held good which he made previously to the Derby, to the effect that he would run Sceptre against any horse in the world, weight for age and sex, over a mile and a quarter to a mile and three-quarters, for $6,000 a side, Mr. Siever replieu:

"Certainly; despite her unlocky defeat in the derby, my confidence in the filly is as great as ever."

Concerning the grand prig, Mr. Sievier said: "Sceptre is a certain starter for the big race in France, which I think she will certainly win."

Mr. Witney's Ballankrie, the only American entry in to-day's races, finished fourth. The race was witnessed by the king, the Prince of Wales, Prince Charles of Denmark and Prince Christian. None of the royal ladies was present.

A noticeable feature is the fashion set by the Queen of wearing flowers out of doors. Nearly every lady present wore flowers to-day, which, for the most part, were malmaisons.
